This beautifully presented two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow offers a wonderful combination of elegant design and practical features, perfect for comfortable modern living. The bright and inviting hallway welcomes you with a charming stained glass front door, leading into a spacious reception room where a cosy fireplace and ample natural light create a warm, homely atmosphere. The thoughtfully arranged kitchen boasts ample cabinetry, integrated appliances, and a stylish tiled backsplash, ensuring both functionality and sophistication. French doors from the living area open directly onto a well-maintained garden, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor spaces. Both generous bedrooms feature large windows, built-in storage, and calming neutral decor, providing peaceful retreats for relaxation.

Additional benefits of this exceptional property include a modern wet room with a walk-in shower and accessible features, ideal for those seeking convenience and ease of use. The outdoor space is a true highlight, offering a lush lawn, spacious patio, and practical garden shed - perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet moments outdoors. Off-road parking and gated side access enhance security and privacy, while the secure fencing and private entrance provide peace of mind. This home presents an exceptional lifestyle opportunity, combining comfort, accessibility, and beautiful surroundings for discerning buyers.
