27 Marlowe Road, Wallasey
£300,000 Freehold

Situated on the ever-popular Marlowe Road, this beautiful family home showcases the love and care that has gone into its creation. Offering a crisp, modern feel blended perfectly with original character features, this charming property provides spacious and stylish accommodation ideal for family living. The internal accommodation extends to approximately 1,200 square feet and begins with an attractive entrance hallway, featuring an original stained-glass panel door, stairs rising to the first floor and discreet built-in under-stairs storage housing the combination boiler. The ground floor offers two well-proportioned reception rooms, with the kitchen leading directly off the dining area to create an open-plan layout that is perfect for entertaining. A separate utility room completes the ground floor accommodation.
